

Founders Brewing Company is in the foreground of the canvas.

The yeast crushes the building.

VAM: We are the disease after all.

VAM: Yeast! It is my responsibility to communicate...

The setting is now around the corridors and rooms of the Grand Rapids Public Museum. Noticably, the left side of VAM is staring down at the model of Grand Rapids. The point-of-view zooms in.

The model of Grand Rapids is shown at an angle from behind VAM's right shoulder. The yeast is on top of various buildings.

VAM: ...and show you your future.

VAM: I know what you're thinking.
